

Soup-er Story

Soup-er Story

Soup-er Story

Maureen and Allan Obrigewitch started Souptacular soups in the basement of their St. Albert home back in 2001 – at the same time as they were growing a family of three busy boys!

Maureen and Allan Obrigewitch started Souptacular soups in the basement of their St. Albert home back in 2001 – at the same time as they were growing a family of three busy boys!

Maureen and Allan Obrigewitch started Souptacular soups in the basement of their St. Albert home back in 2001 – at the same time as they were growing a family of three busy boys!

Allan had a NAIT cooking degree, and Maureen shared a love for cooking nurtured by her mother’s interest in nutrition. These, and lots of beans, are some of the secret ingredients to Souptacular Soup Company.

Allan had a NAIT cooking degree, and Maureen shared a love for cooking nurtured by her mother’s interest in nutrition. These, and lots of beans, are some of the secret ingredients to Souptacular Soup Company.

Allan had a NAIT cooking degree, and Maureen shared a love for cooking nurtured by her mother’s interest in nutrition. These, and lots of beans, are some of the secret ingredients to Souptacular Soup Company.

They still own and operate Souptacular and employ their three sons, making this truly a locally grown business!

They still own and operate Souptacular and employ their three sons, making this truly a locally grown business!

They still own and operate Souptacular and employ their three sons, making this truly a locally grown business!

SOUPTACULAR.COM

SOUPTACULAR.COM

SOUPTACULAR.COM